JUDGE SHEELY VOIDS RULING ON CODE CASE

After a hearing in court here Monday afternoon, Judge W. C. Sheely handed down an order overruling a license suspension order by the secretary of revenue of Pennsylvania and directing that the operator's license of Clarion Sowers, Hamilton township, be restored.

Sowers had taken an appeal from a three-month license suspension order by the state department of revenue. In his petition to the court Sowers explained that he was involved in an auto accident nearly two years ago and that last December, after a hearing, his operating privileges were suspended. He had been charged with failing to yield half the highway.

Insufficient Evidence

Sowers claimed that the state suspension was based on insufficient evidence and that the secretary of revenue had erred in taking away his operating privileges. This is the first case of its kind handled in the local courts, court house records show.

Thomas Johnson, colored CCC enrollee at the battlefield camp, was sentenced to serve from six months to one year in the county jail for an attempt on the life of another negro at the camp Sunday evening, February 22. The sentence is to date, from that day. Johnson admitted he fired two shots at Joseph Morris, another camper, with a .22 rifle after they got into a fight about a card game. The shots missed their mark.

Johnson's home is in Tacony, Philadelphia. The charge was brought by Lt. Philip T. Atkins, camp commander.

D. E. Teeter, Esq., was appointed master in the divorce action by Mildred Pauline (Weikert) Senft against John Allen Senft.

The next session of court will be held in judicial chambers at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

WITNESS HELD IN "FORGERY"

A few hours after he testified on the witness stand in court here Monday morning that he had a friend place Mrs. Winifred McCaffrey's name on several bank notes, McCaffrey was arrested on a charge of forgery filed before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, by Private John E. Thompson, of the state motor police, at the direction of District Attorney J. Francis Yake.

McCaffrey admitted during a hearing on a desertion and non-support charge brought by his wife, Winifred, that his wife's name was written at his direction on three notes which later were presented to a Littlestown bank to secure loans totaling $825.

After his arrest McCaffrey was taken to the office of the district attorney and then he was arraigned before Justice Baschore where $1,000 bond was posted for his appearance at a hearing Thursday evening at 7 o'clock before the local Justice.

A few hours earlier in the day a $500 bond had been posted in the office of the clerk of the courts to secure McCaffrey's release under a $7-a-week support order in favor of his wife and their young child.

In court Monday, Mrs. McCaffrey testified that her husband spent week-ends gambling and although he made about $100 a week he could not pay his bills or support her because of his losses at cards. McCaffrey denied most of the facts testified to by his wife.

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Treasury officials said today hundreds of persons who filed income tax returns in the last few days refused to take any deductions because they wanted to pay more taxes to help win the war.

Officially, however, the Treasury approves of everyone taking his legal deductions.

In contrast to those who refuse to take deductions, some still claim them wrongfully.

The collector at Omaha wrote in yesterday to report that a man there had to be argued out of claiming "depreciation" on his wooden leg.

But the North Dakota collector recently approved a $5 deduction by a woman who lost her dress in an 80-mile-an-hour windstorm.

GIFTS, RECIPES TO BE FREE AT COOKING CLINIC

The seven-letter word "Welcome" is written all over The Gettysburg Times' doormat.

Welcome to the hospitable Cooking School at the Hotel Gettysburg annex, where no engraved invitations, no admission tickets will be needed to join the good times, the inspiration and the profit-sharing during the four open-house evenings on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 17, 18, 19 and 20.

Homemaking Stimulant

Enthusiastic "pupils" in other cities testify that this modern course in the art and science of homemaking is like a tonic, turning out "graduates" who go back to the "same old job" full of pep and renewed vision. The well-worn household program needs the pick-me-up of new ideas, the stimulant of colorful suggestions.

A year's supply of culinary tonic is promised by The Times' experienced home manager, Miss Ruth Bean, who knows all about home-making problems and likes to tackle them just the same. Miss Bean was the lecturer at the 1941 school.

The Times anticipates capacity crowds at the annex next week as Miss Bean promises such appetizing recipes, that homemakers who attend the first session will return for the second, third and fourth sessions. Be sure to come early to watch an expert busy in a model, well-equipped kitchen.

The doors of the annex will open at 6:30 o'clock each evening during the Cooking School. The lectures will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Children under 14 years of age, even though accompanied by a parent, will not be admitted to the lecture hall.

Gifts will be provided by the more than 25 cooperating merchants who have endowed the coming Cooking School. There will be free recipe sheets, also, as well as daily gift bags. Demonstration treats will be given away.

Need a tonic? Come to the wide-awake Cooking School on March 17, 18, 19 and 20 in the Hotel Gettysburg annex.

Legion Auxiliary Will Buy 3 Bonds

At a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary Monday evening it was decided to purchase 1,000 poppies, made by war veterans, to be placed on sale late next May. It was also decided that a sum of money now on interest be used to purchase three $25 defense bonds.

Mrs. A. Harrison Barr was introduced by Mrs. Howard Sheffer, Americanism chairman, and she spoke on "Americanism and National Defense." Le Roy Winebrenner talked on "Home Defense." A piano number, "Songs of Our Nations," was played by Mrs. Howard Hartzell.

The card committee announced a card party will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. John Sheffer, auxiliary president, presided at the meeting.

2 ADDITIONAL DONATIONS AID R.C. RELIEF FUND

The Red Cross War Relief Fund was swelled today to the extent of $50 from one individual donor who announced his second contribution to the fund.

In a letter addressed to John S. Rice, chairman of the Red Cross drive, Roy P. Funkhouser, General Manager of the Victor Products Corporation, presented his personal check for an additional contribution of $50 to the fund. Mr. Funkhouser wrote:

"I am of the same opinion that you are with reference to the good citizens of Gettysburg and Adams county. I, too, feel that they will not fail in this initial drive of the second World war. This county has always answered faithfully when an appeal is made and I am confident that you will reach your goal of $13,000 for the Red Cross War Relief Fund.

Offers Services

"I am very happy to enclose my check for $50 to assist in this splendid effort. I really believe that others will come forward with an additional contribution and that Adams county will go over the top" in this patriotic and humanitarian campaign.

"If I can be of further assistance to you in this work please do not hesitate to call on me."

Mr. Funkhouser and the employees of the rubber heel plant which he manages early in the Red Cross drive made a substantial contribution.

At Red Cross headquarters another "additional" contribution was announced from Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rice of $35. The Rices' first contribution was included in the list of initial donors.

Other contributors today included four Sunday schools one of which informed Red Cross officials to expect $5 bi-monthly for the war fund from its members. The Idaville United Brethren school sent in five dollars on Monday and announced its intention of sending a similar amount at two-month intervals.

Total contributions to date are $11,210 leaving $1,790 still to be collected to reach the goal of $13,000.

Other contributors include:

Senior department of St. James Sunday school	$16.00
Good Samaritan Sunday school class, Lutheran church at Arendtsville	10.00
Bendersville grammar school	5.00
Class No. 43 St. James Sunday school	5.00
Mr. and Mrs. Dale A. Bricker	5.00

ROTARY HEARS OF FBI SCHOOL

Vernon Corle, manager of the local water company, addressed his fellow Rotarians Monday evening on the subjects he studied at the recent F.B.I. school held in Harrisburg.

Rotarian Corle explained how the government is handling enemy aliens. He also described the various types of bombs that are being used in the war. Other topics discussed included espionage and blackouts.

Mr. Corle demonstrated the action of some ingredients that are found in bombs.

During the Monday evening meeting that was held in the Y. W. C. A. building, center square, Rotarian Edgar E. Markley, Esq., was presented with a case bearing a Rotary membership card. Mr. Markley soon will resume his duties with the United States Army.

President E. F. Strausbaugh presided with 28 Rotarians in attendance.

Will Be Installed As Pastor Sunday

The Rev. Richard S. Shanebrook will be installed as pastor of the Muhlenberg Lutheran church at special services Sunday afternoon in Lischey's Union church, York county.

The Rev. Dr. J. M. Myers, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church, Littlestown, who was the Rev. Mr. Shanebrook's pastor, will assist in the service.

Violin Concert Wednesday Night

"He belongs with Vivaldi and Menuhin among the great young talents of the bow," wrote the New York World-Telegram last March after the American violinist Joseph Knitzer had appeared as soloist with the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra playing Chaousson's "Poeme" and Ravel's "Tzigane." Such praise was the climax to a brief but brilliant career which had already been started with appearances under the baton of Stokowski and Iturbi with the Philadelphia Orchestra, engagements with the Detroit, Dayton and Harrisburg Symphonies, performances at the Ann Arbor and Worcester Festivals and on such important radio broadcasts as the Ford, Kraft, and Magic Key programs.

Reasons for the success of this young violinist will be apparent when he appears in the third and final concert of the Gettysburg Concert association Wednesday evening in Brus Chapel.

Doors will open at eight o'clock and the concert will start at 8:45 o'clock.

COOPERATION IS URGED FOR SALVAGE WORK

"I don't believe a good American should leave even an old flatiron idle for very long in this campaign to salvage waste and unused materials important to the war effort," O. H. Benson, chairman of the county salvage committee, said in an address before the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening. His subject was "Conservation."

Revealing that an agricultural committee working in cooperation with the county salvage group already has launched a county-wide survey intended to "clean up junk on the farm," Mr. Benson called on club members to join in the effort to gather waste paper, iron, steel, copper, brass, magazines, books, old rags and other materials important in the war effort even down to such small items as metal bottle caps.

Help Boy Scouts

A complete list of buyers of waste and salvaged products is being compiled and will be made available to countymen, he said. He urged that clubmen help Boy Scouts in their newspaper collection campaign and thereby aid the war effort and at the same time help finance worthy scout projects.

As an example of what can be accomplished in the way of conservation by united effort of youth groups, Mr. Benson cited the black walnut gathering and planting program. He said Boy Scouts in this county have set a record for gathering black walnuts for seed and that walnut trees from Adams county seed are growing on the state capital grounds of 47 states.

The scout walnut planting program not only promotes tree planting but helps produce an increasing supply of valuable wood. The nuts have an important food value and the trees themselves are ornamental, Mr. Benson pointed out.

About 30 clubmen and five guests from the York Springs Lions club attended the meeting which was held at Mrs. Smith's restaurant with G. W. Lefever presiding.

Southeastern Folks Get Sand Wednesday

All residents living in the southeastern section of town will have an opportunity to receive sand from the borough on Wednesday. The borough truck will make deliveries along the eastern side of Baltimore street and all territory to the east and will cover York street and the section between York street and the railroad.

On Monday nearly eight tons of sand was distributed to persons living north of the railroad. The western and southwestern section of town will be covered later in the week on a day or days yet to be announced.

Each householder is requested to place two buckets on his front curb. Only one delivery is to be made.

The sand must be kept dry to be of any use in controlling incendiary bombs, the town's citizens have been warned.

SCHOOL BOARD ORDERS COAL BINS FILLED

Members of the Gettysburg school board transacted routine business at their March meeting Monday evening and then adjourned until Tuesday, April 14, when they will conduct the quadrennial election of a superintendent of schools for Gettysburg. The regular April meeting will be held on the same evening.

The directors ordered coal bins at all of the local school buildings filled as soon as possible for the 1942-1943 term.

The treasurers' report, submitted by the Gettysburg National bank, showed the $14,586 state appropriation was received during the past month and helped boost the balance in the general fund to $36,208 at the end of February, a figure approximately $10,000 above the balance at the opening of the month.

February expenditures totaled $7,743. The school district received $1,848 in tuition from non-residents and $314 in taxes.

The monthly statement from the cafeteria showed February receipts totaled $321.86. There is a $21.60 balance in the current fund of the cafeteria.

After the business meeting members of the board posed for their annual group photo to be used in the high school yearbook.

President Arthur E. Hutchison presided with Directors Mahlon P. Bartzell, secretary; Charles S. Black, Ralph Z. Oyler, Charles B. Bender, Charles M. Sheely and Charles B. Dougherty, and Superintendent L. C. Keefeauver in attendance.

The budget for the 1942-1943 school year is to come up for consideration of the April meeting.

ABANDONED CCC CAMPS PROBED

Baltimore, March 10 (AP)—An investigation of abandoned CCC camps has been ordered by Lieut. Col. E. E. McLendon, Army officer in charge of the Civilian Conservation Corps in the Third Corps Area, it was announced today.

Colonel McLendon said the CCC was "doing everything possible to conserve and reclaim all materials."

Guy McKinney, assistant CCC director, said an investigator had been sent to Camp S-51 at Pine Grove Furnace in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, where stocks of clothing were reported burned after the camp was abandoned last month.

Colonel McLendon said a preliminary report showed that "all of the usable equipment had been transferred" to the supply depot except for a small parcel, which was burned because it would cost more to transport it than it was worth.

He said the parcel included 10 or 15 pairs of shoes, 20 pairs of galoshes and two barracks bags of old clothes. He placed the salvage value at $3.25 and the transport cost at $10.

Colonel McLendon said depreciation of trucks standing in the open would be less than the cost of building a garage.

He said the government also knew that tires were packed in a storage house but asserted "they were not forgotten" and "cannot be sold except by order of the Treasury department."

Completes Course At Air Corps School

Pvt. Lawrence Richard Fidler, son of Lawrence P. Fidler 153 East Middle street, today was graduated from the Air Corps technical school at Keesler Field, Mississippi, after an intensive 18-week course which prepared him to serve as an airplane mechanic "on the line."

Private Fidler's class, which numbered in the hundreds, will be dispersed among the many units of the Army Air Forces to maintain and service Uncle Sam's planes. The course includes training in aircraft maintenance fundamentals, airplane structures, hydraulic systems, propellers, instruments, engines, electrical systems, fuel systems, engine operation, and inspection of single and multi-engine planes.

Brother Of Local Resident Expires

Funeral services were held today from the Wheatley funeral home, Alexandria, Virginia, for Gettysburg, 73, who died at his home in Alexandria Saturday from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Myers left Gettysburg about 40 years ago after learning the watch-making trade with his brother, Penrose, of Gettysburg.

Surviving are three brothers, Penrose, Gettysburg, John, York, and Harry Harney Three nieces and a nephew also survive.

British Admit Loss Of Lower Burma; Foe Near East's Riches

Canberra, Australia, March 10 (AP)—The Japanese made a third landing on New Guinea today, enlarging the forces they are marshalling there for what Australians are convinced is an imminent attempt to invade this continent.

The landing was at Finschhafen, where there is a small airfield and a harbor which can accommodate moderate-sized vessels. The strength of the new landing force was not stated.

It is 60 miles east of Lae which, with Salamaua, were the sites of two previous Japanese landings.

Take Offensive

These and repeated Japanese air bombardments of Port Moresby—another air raid there today was the tenth—have banished any theorizing among officials that Australia may be overlooked by the Japanese temporarily in favor of a drive into India.

Australia's air force, strengthened by the return from other fronts of battle-proven fliers to defend their homeland, has been ordered to take the offensive against the gathering enemy strength at the commonwealth's doorstep.

Air Minister Arthur S. Drakeford said the RAAF was using every resource at its command to strike at the springboards of invasion on New Guinea, some of them but 45 minutes by fighter plane from these shores.

All this was regarded only as a delaying action, however, as the new enemy landings and renewed air operations underlined the conviction of Australian authorities that an invasion attempt has become imminent and inevitable with the fall of Java.

Expect Attacks

They were said to regard the invasion of New Guinea as the forerunner of swift blows against the Australian mainland itself and as a full-scale assault probably aimed against Darwin, Broome, Wyndham and other centers on the north and east coasts.

Heads of Australia's fighting services have given the cabinet detailed information on the type of attacks they expect, the locations most likely to be selected by the Japanese for beachheads and the measures deemed necessary to drive them off.

At Adelaide, Lieut. Gen. Sir Iven Mackay, commander of the home forces, told the Australians that a large scale Japanese invasion of Australia "would be difficult but not beyond their capacity."

U.S. FIXES PORK PRICES

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The government temporarily froze wholesale prices of 90 per cent of the nation's pork products, including ham and bacon, today at the highest levels prevailing between March 3 and March 7.

The ceiling, effective March 23, applies to dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts, and Price Administrator Leon Henderson declared it was expected "to help importantly in holding down the cost of living."

Last year, consumers spent more than $2,000,000,000 for pork and other hog products.

Neither farmers nor retail outlets are covered directly by the emergency price schedule but Henderson asserted both would feel its effects. When prices are fixed on dressed hogs or pork cuts, prices which the packer may pay for farmers' hogs automatically are limited.

Eleven members of the board attended the meeting.

Elks Seek Youth To Learn Trade

The student aid committee of the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks is looking for a handicapped young fellow from Adams county who would be interested in attending the Williamsport vocational school to learn some profitable trade.

The Grand Lodge of Elks and subordinate lodges join each year in a movement to assist some deserving, handicapped young man, preferably of high school age, to learn a useful trade with which he may assume his rightful place in the business world.

All expenses are borne by the Elks lodges and the state.

This year the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks has not located anyone who is interested and an appeal has been made to The Gettysburg Times to publish an announcement of the plan in order that the committee might locate a desirable youth.

Those knowing of any young man who would like to learn a trade are asked to notify Joseph E. Codori, at Gettysburg, before Saturday noon March 14th.

Further preparations for the annual membership dinner meeting of the YWCA of Gettysburg on March 26 were announced Monday afternoon at the March meeting of the "Y" board of directors held in the association building with Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, president, presiding.

Besides the annual election of women to fill vacancies on the board of directors, committee chairmen will present three-minute reports on the work of their departments. Dr. Richard A. Arms, of the Gettysburg college faculty, will review a play and there will be special musical selections.

Dinner at 6:30 P. M.

The dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in the association building. Tickets will cost 40 cents each with March 24 set as the deadline for reservations. Mrs. Anna Plank, membership committee chairman, announced that letters announcing the plans for the annual session are ready to be mailed to all members.

The finance committee, headed by Mrs. Lila Craig, announced that the current drive has brought in a total of $1,539.60 with reports not yet complete. Vegetables and other foodstuffs worth $120 have been received and it was announced that if rural residents of the county wish to give foodstuffs rather than cash those gifts will be very acceptable.

To Plan Summer Camps

Mrs. Frank Kramer reported for the personnel committee and stated that the office secretary, Miss Mary Elizabeth McIlhenny, has been granted a week's vacation during the first week of April.

A meeting of the Mothers' committee of the Girl Reserves and the club advisors was announced for Monday evening. Recommendations on the summer camping program were to be drawn up for submission at the next meeting of the board of directors. Routine, monthly club reports were presented.

Eleven members of the board attended the meeting.

Free Land For Gardens Made Available Here

Anyone who is willing to spend some of his or her spare time farming a "Victory Garden" may secure a plot of ground for a garden, about forty by one hundred and twenty feet, without charge, according to a display advertisement appearing in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

Joseph E. Codori, owner of about fifteen acres of land along East Broadway extended, East Lincoln avenue extended and Barlow street extended, announces, in a paid advertisement, that he will grant the use of the land for "Victory Gardens" to anyone who desires to do a little spare-time farming.

Mr. Codori places one restriction on his offer:

Those who are granted the use of the land to farm a "Victory Garden" must pledge themselves to raise whatever vegetables they wish for their own consumption . . . that said vegetables must not be sold for personal gain or profit.

Coincident with Mr. Codori's announcement is the series of six articles now appearing in The Gettysburg Times on "Victory Gardens."

JUDGE SHEELY VOIDS RULING ON CODE CASE

After a hearing in court here Monday afternoon, Judge W. C. Sheely handed down an order overruling a license suspension order by the secretary of revenue of Pennsylvania and directing that the operator's license of Clarion Sowers, Hamilton township, be restored.

Sowers had taken an appeal from a three-month license suspension order by the state department of revenue. In his petition to the court Sowers explained that he was involved in an auto accident nearly two years ago and that last December, after a hearing, his operating privileges were suspended. He had been charged with failing to yield half the highway.

Insufficient Evidence

Sowers claimed that the state suspension was based on insufficient evidence and that the secretary of revenue had erred in taking away his operating privileges. This is the first case of its kind handled in the local courts, court house records show.

Thomas Johnson, colored CCC enrollee at the battlefield camp, was sentenced to serve from six months to one year in the county jail for an attempt on the life of another negro at the camp Sunday evening, February 22. The sentence is to date from that day. Johnson admitted he fired two shots at Joseph Morris, another camper, with a .22 rifle after they got into a fight about a card game. The shots missed their mark.

Johnson's home is in Tacony, Philadelphia. The charge was brought by Lt. Philip T. Atkins, camp commander.

D. E. Teeter, Esq., was appointed master in the divorce action by Mildred Pauline (Welkert) Senft against John Allen Senft.

The next session of court will be held in judicial chambers at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

WITNESS HELD IN "FORGERY"

A few hours after he testified on the witness stand in court here Monday morning that he had a friend place Mrs. Winifred McCaffrey's name on several bank notes, McCaffrey was arrested on a charge of forgery filed before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore, by Private John E. Thompson, of the state motor police, at the direction of District Attorney J. Francis Yake.

McCaffrey admitted during a hearing on a desertion and non-support charge brought by his wife, Winifred, that his wife's name was written at his direction on three notes which later were presented to a Littlestown bank to secure loans totaling $825.

After his arrest McCaffrey was taken to the office of the district attorney and then he was arraigned before Justice Baschore where $1,000 bond was posted for his appearance at a hearing Thursday evening at 7 o'clock before the local justice.

A few hours earlier in the day a $500 bond had been posted in the office of the clerk of the courts to secure McCaffrey's release under a $7-a-week support order in favor of his wife and their young child.

In court Monday, Mrs. McCaffrey testified that her husband spent week-ends gambling and although he made about $100 a week he could not pay his bills or support her because of his losses at cards. McCaffrey denied most of the facts testified to by his wife.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Eugene S. Kelly, York street, was admitted to the Warner hospital in the ambulance Monday. Other admissions included Mrs. Dilly Eyer, Emmitsburg; Mrs. George Johanningmeier, Gettysburg; and Mrs. Earl Zeigler, South street. Those discharged were Mrs. William Sell, Gettysburg R. 4; Miss Lottie Hulick, New Oxford; Dolores Miller, West High street; Catherine Utz, York Springs; and Mrs. Lawrence Fidler, East Middle street.

Enthusiastic "pupils" in other cities testify that this modern course in the art and science of homemaking is like a tonic, turning out "graduates" who go back to the "same old job" full of pep and renewed vision. The well-worn household program needs the pick-me-up of new ideas, the stimulant of colorful suggestions.

A year's supply of culinary tonic is promised by The Times' experienced home manager, Miss Ruth Bean, who knows all about homemaking problems and likes to tackle them just the same. Miss Bean was the lecturer at the 1941 school.

The Times anticipates capacity crowds at the annex next week as Miss Bean promises such appetizing recipes, that homemakers who attend the first session will return for the second, third and fourth sessions. Be sure to come early to watch an expert busy in a model, well-equipped kitchen.

The doors of the annex will open at 6:30 o'clock each evening during the Cooking School. The lectures will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Children under 14 years of age, even though accompanied by a parent, will not be admitted to the lecture hall.

Gifts will be provided by the more than 25 cooperating merchants who have endowed the coming Cooking School. There will be free recipe sheets, also, as well as daily gift bags. Demonstration treats will be given away.

Need a tonic? Come to the wide-awake Cooking School on March 17, 18, 19 and 20 in the Hotel Gettysburg annex.

Legion Auxiliary Will Buy 3 Bonds

At a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary Monday evening it was decided to purchase 1,000 poppies, made by war veterans, to be placed on sale late next May. It was also decided that a sum of money now on interest be used to purchase three $25 defense bonds.

Mrs. A. Harrison Barr was introduced by Mrs. Howard Sheffer, Americanism chairman, and she spoke on "Americanism and National Defense." Le Roy Winebrenner talked on "Home Defense." A piano number, "Songs of Our Nations," was played by Mrs. Howard Hartzell.

The card committee announced a card party will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. John Sheffer, auxiliary president, presided at the meeting.

2 ADDITIONAL DONATIONS AID R.C. RELIEF FUND

The Red Cross War Relief Fund was swelled today to the extent of $50 from one individual donor who announced his second contribution to the fund.

In a letter addressed to John S. Rice, chairman of the Red Cross drive, Roy P. Funkhouser, General Manager of the Victor Products Corporation, presented his personal check for an additional contribution of $50 to the fund. Mr. Funkhouser wrote:

"I am of the same opinion that you are with reference to the good citizens of Gettysburg and Adams county. I, too, feel that they will not fail in this initial drive of the second World war. This county has always answered faithfully when an appeal is made and I am confident that you will reach your goal of $13,000 for the Red Cross War Relief Fund.

Offers Services

"I am very happy to enclose my check for $50 to assist in this splendid effort. I really believe that others will come forward with an additional contribution and that Adams county will 'go over the top' in this patriotic and humanitarian campaign.

"If I can be of further assistance to you in this work please do not hesitate to call on me."

Mr. Funkhouser and the employees of the rubber heel plant which he manages early in the Red Cross drive made a substantial contribution.

At Red Cross headquarters another "additional" contribution was announced from Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rice of $35. The Rice's first contribution was included in the list of initial donors.

Other contributors today included four Sunday schools one of which informed Red Cross officials to expect $5 bi-monthly for the war fund from its members. The Idaville United Brethren school sent in five dollars on Monday and announced its intention of sending a similar amount at two-month intervals.

Total contributions to date are $11,210 leaving $1,790 still to be collected to reach the goal of $13,000.

Other contributors include: Senior department of St. James Sunday school $16.00 Good Samaritan Sunday school class, Lutheran church at Arendtsville 10.00 Benderville grammar school 5.00 Class No. 43 St. James Sunday school 5.00 Mr. and Mrs. Dale A. Bricker 5.00

A complete list of buyers of waste and salvaged products is being compiled and will be made available to countians, he said. He urged that clubmen help Boy Scouts in their waste-paper collection campaign and thereby aid the war effort and at the same time help finance worthy scout projects.

As an example of what can be accomplished in the way of conservation by united effort of youth groups, Mr. Benson cited the black walnut gathering and planting program. He said Boy Scouts in this county have set a record for gathering black walnuts for seed and that walnut trees from Adams county seed are growing on the state capitol grounds of 47 states.

ROTARY HEARS OF FBI SCHOOL

Vernon Corle, manager of the local water company, addressed his fellow Rotarians Monday evening on the subjects he studied at the recent F.B.I. school held in Harrisburg.

Rotarian Corle explained how the government is handling enemy aliens. He also described the various types of bombs that are being used in the war. Other topics discussed included espionage and blackouts. Mr. Corle demonstrated the action of some ingredients that are found in bombs.

During the Monday evening meeting that was held in the Y. W. C. A. building, center square, Rotarian Edgar K. Markley, Esq., was presented with a case bearing a Rotary membership card. Mr. Markley will resume his duties with the United States Army.

President E. F. Strausbaugh presided with 28 Rotarians in attendance.

Will Be Installed As Pastor Sunday

The Rev. Richard S. Shanebrook will be installed as pastor of the Muhlengberg Lutheran church at special services Sunday afternoon in Lischey's Union church, York county.

The Rev. Dr. J. M. Myers, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church, Littlestown, who was the Rev. Mr. Shanebrook's pastor, will assist in the service.

Violin Concert Wednesday Night

"He belongs with Vivaldi and Menuhin among the great young talents of the bow," wrote the New York World-Telegram last March after the American violinist Joseph Knitzer had appeared as soloist with the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra playing Chausson's "Poeme" and Ravel's "Tzigane." Such praise was the climax to a brief but brilliant career which had already been starred with appearances under the baton of Stokowski and Iturbi with the Philadelphia Orchestra, engagements with the Detroit, Dayton and Harrisburg Symphonies, performances at the Ann Arbor and Worcester Festivals and on such important radio broadcasts as the Ford, Kraft, and Magic Key programs.

Reasons for the success of this young violinist will be apparent when he appears in the third and final concert of the Gettysburg Concert Association Wednesday evening in Brua Chapel.

Doors will open at eight o'clock and the concert will start at 8:45 o'clock.

COOPERATION IS URGED FOR SALVAGE WORK

"I don't believe a good American should leave even an old flatiron idle for very long in this campaign to salvage waste and unused materials important to the war effort," O. H. Benson, chairman of the county salvage committee, said in an address before the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening. His subject was "Conservation."

Revealing that an agricultural committee working in cooperation with the county salvage group already has launched a county-wide survey intended to "clean up junk on the farm," Mr. Benson called on club members to join in the effort to gather waste paper, iron, steel, copper, brass, magazines, books, old rags and other materials important in the war effort even down to such small items as metal bottle caps.

Help Boy Scouts

A complete list of buyers of waste and salvaged products is being compiled and will be made available to countians, he said. He urged that clubmen help Boy Scouts in their waste-paper collection campaign and thereby aid the war effort and at the same time help finance worthy scout projects.

As an example of what can be accomplished in the way of conservation by united effort of youth groups, Mr. Benson cited the black walnut gathering and planting program. He said Boy Scouts in this county have set a record for gathering black walnuts for seed and that walnut trees from Adams county seed are growing on the state capitol grounds of 47 states.

The scout walnut planting program not only promotes tree planting but helps produce an increasing supply of valuable wood. The nuts have an important food value and the trees themselves are ornamental, Mr. Benson pointed out.

About 30 clubmen and five guests from the York Springs Lions club attended the meeting which was held at Mrs. Smith's restaurant with G. W. Lefever presiding.

Southeastern Folks Get Sand Wednesday

All residents living in the southeastern section of town will have an opportunity to receive sand from the borough on Wednesday. The borough truck will make deliveries along the eastern side of Baltimore street and all territory to the east and will cover York street and the section between York street and the railroad.

On Monday nearly eight tons of sand was distributed to persons living north of the railroad. The western and southwestern section of town will be covered later in the week on a day or days yet to be announced.

Each householder is requested to place two buckets on his front curb. Only one delivery is to be made.

The sand must be kept dry to be of any use in controlling incendiary bombs, the town's citizens have been warned.

Completes Course At Air Corps School

Pvt. Lawrence Richard Fidler, son of Lawrence P. Fidler, 153 East Middle street, today was graduated from the Air Corps technical school at Keesler Field, Mississippi, after an intensive 19-week course which prepared him to serve as an airplane mechanic "on the line."

Private Fidler's class, which numbered in the hundreds, will be dispersed among the many units of the Army Air Forces to maintain and service Uncle Sam's planes. The course includes training in aircraft maintenance fundamentals, airplane structures, hydraulic systems, propellers, instruments, engines, electrical systems, fuel systems, engine operation, and inspection of single and multi-motored planes.

SCHOOL BOARD ORDERS COAL BINS FILLED

Members of the Gettysburg school board transacted routine business at their March meeting Monday evening and then adjourned until Tuesday, April 14, when they will conduct the quadrennial election of a superintendent of schools for Gettysburg. The regular April meeting will be held on the same evening.

The directors ordered coal bins at all of the local school buildings filled as soon as possible for the 1942-1943 term.

The treasurers' report, submitted by the Gettysburg National bank, showed the $14,566 state appropriation was received during the past month and helped boost the balance in the general fund to $36,208 at the end of February, a figure approximately $10,000 above the balance at the opening of the month.

February expenditures totaled $7,743. The school district received $1,848 in tuition from non-residents and $314 in taxes.

The monthly statement from the cafeteria showed February receipts totaled $321.86. There is a $21.60 balance in the current fund of the cafeteria.

After the business meeting members of the board posed for their annual group photo to be used in the high school yearbook.

President Arthur E. Hutchison presided with Directors Mahlon P. Hartzell, secretary; Charles S. Black, Ralph Z. Oyler, Charles B. Bender, Charles M. Sheely and Charles B. Dougherty, and Superintendent L. C. Keefe in attendance.

The budget for the 1942-1943 school year is to come up for consideration of the April meeting.

Expect Attacks

They were said to regard the invasion of New Guinea as the forerunner of swift blows against the Australian mainland itself and as a full-scale assault probably aimed against Darwin, Broome, Wyndham and other centers on the north and east coasts.

ABANDONED CCC CAMPS PROBED

Baltimore, March 10 (AP)—An investigation of abandoned CCC camps has been ordered by Lieut. Col. E. E. McLendon, army officer in charge of the Civilian Conservation Corps in the Third Corps Area, it was announced today.

Colonel McLendon said the CCC was "doing everything possible to conserve and reclaim all materials." Guy McKinney, assistant CCC director, said an investigator had been sent to Camp S-51 at Pine Grove Furnace in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, where stocks of clothing were reported burned after the camp was abandoned last month.

Colonel McLendon said a preliminary report showed that "all of the usable equipment had been transferred" to the supply depot except for a small parcel, which was burned because it would cost more to transport it than it was worth. He said the parcel included 10 or 15 pairs of shoes, 20 pairs of galoshes and two barracks bags of old clothes. He placed the salvage value at $3.25 and the transport cost at $10.

Colonel McLendon said depreciation of trucks standing in the open would be less than the cost of building a garage.

He said the government also knew that tires were packed in a storage house but asserted "they were not forgotten" and "cannot be sold except by order of the Treasury department."

Brother Of Local Resident Expires

Funeral services were held today from the Wheatley funeral home, Alexandria, Virginia, for Gettys Myers, 73, who died at his home in Alexandria Saturday from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Myers left Gettysburg about 40 years ago after learning the watch-making trade with his brother, Penrose, of Gettysburg.

Surviving are three brothers, Penrose, Gettysburg; John, York, and Harry, Harney. Three nieces and a nephew also survive.

British Admit Loss Of Lower Burma; Foe Near East's Riches

Canberra, Australia, March 10 (AP)—The Japanese made a third landing on New Guinea today, enlarging the forces they are marshalling there for what Australians are convinced is an imminent attempt to invade this continent.

The landing was at Finschhafen, where there is a small airfield and a harbor which can accommodate moderate-sized vessels. The strength of the new landing force was not stated.

It is 60 miles east of Lae which, with Salamaua, were the sites of two previous Japanese landings.

Take Offensive

These and repeated Japanese air bombardments of Port Moresby—another air raid there today was the tenth—have banished any theorizing among officials that Australia may be overlooked by the Japanese temporarily in favor of a drive into India.

Australia's air force, strengthened by the return from other fronts of battle-proven fliers to defend their homeland, has been ordered to take the offensive against the gathering enemy strength at the commonwealth's doorstep.

Air Minister Arthur S. Drakeford said the RAAF was using every resource at its command to strike at the springboards of invasion on New Guinea, some of them but 45 minutes by fighter plane from these shores.

All this was regarded only as a delaying action, however, as the new enemy landings and renewed air operations underlined the conviction of Australian authorities that an invasion attempt has become imminent and inevitable with the fall of Java.

Expect Attacks

They were said to regard the invasion of New Guinea as the forerunner of swift blows against the Australian mainland itself and as a full-scale assault probably aimed against Darwin, Broome, Wyndham and other centers on the north and east coasts.

Heads of Australia's fighting services have given the cabinet detailed information on the type of attacks they expect, the locations most likely to be selected by the Japanese for beachheads and the measures deemed necessary to drive them off.

At Adelaide, Lieut. Gen. Sir Iven Mackay, commander of the home forces, told the Australians that a large scale Japanese invasion of Australia "would be difficult but not beyond their capacity."

U.S. FIXES PORK PRICES

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The government temporarily froze wholesale prices of 90 per cent of the nation's pork products, including ham and bacon, today at the highest levels prevailing between March 3 and March 7.

The ceiling, effective March 23, applies to dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts, and Price Administrator Leon Henderson declared it was expected "to help importantly in holding down the cost of living."

Last year, consumers spent more than $2,000,000,000 for pork and other hog products.

Neither farmers nor retail outlets are covered directly by the emergency price schedule but Henderson asserted both would feel its effects. When prices are fixed on dressed hogs or pork cuts, prices which the packer may pay for farmers' hogs automatically are limited.

The Grand Lodge of Elks and subordinate lodges join each year in a movement to assist some desegregating, handicapped young man, preferably of high school age, to learn a useful trade with which he may assume his rightful place in the business world.

All expenses are borne by the Elk lodges and the state.

This year the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks has not located anyone who is interested and an appeal has been made to The Gettysburg Times to publish an announcement of the plan in order that the committee might locate a desirable youth.

Those knowing of any young man who would like to learn a trade are asked to notify Joseph E. Codori, at Gettysburg, before Saturday noon, March 14th.

The finance committee, headed by Mrs. Lila Craig, announced that the current drive has brought in a total of $1,539.60 with reports not yet complete. Vegetables and other foodstuffs worth $120 have been received and it was announced that if rural residents of the county wish to give foodstuffs rather than cash those gifts will be very acceptable.

To Plan Summer Camps

Mrs. Frank Kramer reported for the personnel committee and stated that the office secretary, Miss Mary Elizabeth McIlhenny, has been granted a week's vacation during the first week of April.

A meeting of the Mothers' committee of the Girl Reserves and the club advisors was announced for Monday evening. Recommendations on the summer camping program were to be drawn up for submission at the next meeting of the board of directors. Routine, monthly club reports were presented.

Eleven members of the board attended the meeting.

Elks Seek Youth To Learn Trade

The student aid committee of the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks is looking for a handicapped young fellow from Adams county who would be interested in attending the Williamsport vocational school to learn some profitable trade.

The Grand Lodge of Elks and subordinate lodges join each year in a movement to assist some desegregating, handicapped young man, preferably of high school age, to learn a useful trade with which he may assume his rightful place in the business world.

All expenses are borne by the Elk lodges and the state.

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Mandalay, Burma, March 10 (AP)—Japanese legions which have conquered Rangoon and closed the Burma supply line to China in two months surged westward today toward the oil fields of Irrawaddy and the fabulous riches of India.

The British indicated they were conceding the loss of the entire southern tip of Burma from Rangoon to the Bay of Bengal by destroying public utilities at Bassein, an important port about 90 miles west of the Burmese capital and key city of the Irrawaddy river delta.

To carry the scorched earth policy still further, American drillers and engineers working for British oil interests in the Irrawaddy fields 300 miles from Rangoon were ready to repair them for five years.

Rangoon Evacuated

The British announced last night in this storied city that their Army had evacuated Rangoon, which had not heard the tread of conquering feet since a British Army occupied the city in 1852.

All industrial objectives in Rangoon were demolished and dock installations, oil refineries and machinery which could not be moved were destroyed, it was stated.

The RAF said smoke rose 15,000 feet above Rangoon as "fires roared through the city's vital areas."

One Port Remains

The Japanese swept around Pegu, allied strong point 40 miles north of Rangoon, in their haste to reach the capital and today the movements of the invaders indicated heavy fighting was shaping up in that sector.

With the fall of Rangoon and the imminent threat to Bassein, the port city of Akyab on the Bay of Bengal remained the sole point in Burma for water communication with India over which reinforcements might move unimpeded to the British.

Akyab is about 240 miles south-west of Mandalay.

Free Land For Gardens Made Available Here

Anyone who is willing to spend some of his or her spare time farming a "Victory Garden" may secure a plot of ground for a garden, about forty by one hundred and twenty feet, without charge, according to a display advertisement appearing in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

Joseph E. Codori, owner of about fifteen acres of land along East Broadway extended, East Lincoln avenue extended and Barlow street extended, announces, in a paid advertisement, that he will grant the use of the land for "Victory Gardens" to anyone who desires to do a little spare-time farming.

Mr. Codori places one restriction on his offer:

Those who are granted the use of the land to farm a "Victory Garden" must pledge themselves to raise whatever vegetables they wish for their own consumption . . . that said vegetables must not be sold for personal gain or profit.

Coinciding with Mr. Codori's announcement is the series of six articles now appearing in The Gettysburg Times on "Victory Gardens."

NAZIS BLAMED FOR TORPEDOED BRAZIL SHIPS

[By the Associated Press]
The arrival of survivors from torpedoed merchant ships at three Caribbean harbors underscored the persisting menace today along the sea lanes between North and South America as the loss of Brazil's third ship pushed that country along the road which led her into the first World war.

The three ports where rescued crews put in yesterday were:
In northwest Haiti—22 survivors, including the captain, of a United States steamer reported to have been sunk last Saturday. The vessel was identified as the Caribia but no such name is listed in Lloyd's shipping register.
Baracoa, Cuba—All 39 crewmen of a vessel described as a Standard Oil tanker who were picked up by a fishing boat after their ship was torpedoed and shelled about 20 miles off the eastern tip of Cuba. The ship was mentioned in Cuban reports as the Nanend, Handeet or Handead but Lloyd's records none of those names.

Blame Germany
Kingston, St. Vincent, British West Indies—39 survivors, among them many who were injured, and the bodies of two men who perished in the lifeboats after their ship was torpedoed. No details of the torpedoing were disclosed. One man died after reaching shore.

In Rio de Janeiro, the Brazilian government announced last night that Germany was being held accountable for the submarine sinkings of two Brazilian ships, the Buarque and Olinda, both of which went down off the United States coast.

An inquiry was announced also over the torpedoing of a third Brazilian merchantman, the 7,876-ton Arbutan, which was lost Saturday afternoon with a coal cargo valued at $200,000.

One of her 54 crew members said at Norfolk, Virginia, yesterday he believed it was an Italian submarine which attacked her off North Carolina and dived just two minutes before a U. S. Navy plane arrived.

Brazil, whose loss of ships led to a declaration of war on Germany in the first World war, has demanded reparation from Germany for the Buarque and Olinda.

U.S. REPORTS 138 JAP SHIPS SUNK

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Four Japanese aircraft carriers have been sunk or damaged since the start of the war, Navy figures showed today.

A communique issued late yesterday said American submarines last week had sunk or damaged six Japanese naval vessels, including one carrier on which two torpedo hits were scored. Previously the Navy had reported sinking one carrier and probably sinking another, and the Army had reported damaging a third.

At the start of the war Japan had from seven to nine fleet carriers and an undivided number of converted merchant carriers. The communique did not state which type had been hit in the newest attack.

The official U. S. submarine score for the week was:
"One destroyer leader—sunk."
"One large naval tanker—sunk."

"Ships damaged and definitely put out of action:
"One aircraft carrier—two torpedo hits."
"One cruiser—one torpedo hit."
"One cruiser—one torpedo hit."
"One cruiser—two torpedo hits."

This raised to 138 the total of Japanese vessels sunk by U. S. submarines and to 133 the total of all types of enemy warships sunk by the Army and Navy in the western Pacific.

Freight Train Hits Rail Laid On Track

A five-foot section of rusty steel rail laid across Western Maryland railroad tracks, three miles east of here Sunday night was struck by a huge "900" locomotive and thrown clear of the tracks. It was disclosed today by railroad officials. The train was not derailed.
Milton E. Tipton, Western Maryland detective who is conducting the local investigation into the incident, said the barrier across the tracks was a section of old railroad rail and was so placed that it rested on both rails of the main track.

The train that struck the object and threw it clear of the tracks was a west-bound freight that reached the point at about 4:30 o'clock Monday morning. The train stopped and members of the crew picked up the section of rail. It was brought to Gettysburg and a report of the incident was made.

Detective Tipton expressed the opinion that the rail had been placed there Sunday evening that section of track had not been used from early Sunday evening until the early morning freight headed west toward Gettysburg.

Trucker Arrested On Weight Charge

Wm. McBee, Aspers, was committed to jail here Monday evening by Chief of Police Glenn Guise on a charge brought by John E. Millhous, county sealer of weights and measures, before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. Millhous alleges that McBee gave an incorrect figure for the weight of his truck in figuring net weights of loads of coal he delivered.
In default of $100 bond McBee was jailed for a hearing at 3 o'clock Wednesday evening.

DOZEN BILLS TO ALTER STATE WAR PROGRAM

Harrisburg, March 10 (AP)—House leaders today began drafting a dozen bills carrying out the ideas of State department heads for re-vamping laws to further Pennsylvania's war program.

Rep. Leo A. Achtermann, Democratic floor leader in the House, said the measures were being drawn up on the basis of a survey he made of every division of the government.

"The Legislature is now in session and I think it is the sensible thing to do to handle the subjects we know of while we are here," he asserted.

"Let's find out what may be needed. In due time I will release to the House the replies of the Department heads, three-fourths of whom said nothing was needed."

No Comment on James' Bill
Achtermann would not comment on the merits of Governor James' bill, now in Senate committee, to give the Executive the power, upon recommendation of the State Defense council, to modify or suspend laws holding up the war effort. But, he added:

"There may be no need for the war powers bill as requested by the Governor when we're through."
Republicans controlling the Senate have taken the same attitude toward a four-member committee named to determine what changes are necessary at this time.

"Sentiment seems to crystallize into a desire to do what we can now and then recess," said Senator James A. Getz, of Allegheny county, the Republican floor leader in the upper chamber.

Neither Getz nor Achtermann would estimate how long piecemeal revision would take. Several bills carrying out this program have already been introduced, despite James' insistence on his original plan.

Y.S. Firemen Have 3 Alarms Monday

The York Springs fire company had a busy day on Monday answering three alarms.

The first call was to the home of Marks Bream in Cranberry Valley where a chimney fire was extinguished and then about noon the firemen were called to the York Springs hotel where they checked a fire that caused damage estimated at about $500. Late in the afternoon an alarm was turned in from the home of E. S. Guise in York Springs and firemen found another chimney blaze.

A fourth fire, a chimney blaze at the property of C. F. Ditzler, was put out without the services of the firemen.

Japs Bind Prisoners And Bayonet Them To Death

Ottawa, March 10 (AP)—A statement charging the Japanese Army in Hongkong with atrocities rivaling those at Nanking in 1937 was made today by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in the House of Commons in London, according to a release by the Canadian Department of External Affairs.

London, March 10 (AP)—An official British spokesman declared today that 50 British officers and men were bound hand and foot and then bayoneted to death during Japanese atrocities at Hongkong after that crown colony was captured.

Assault and Murder
He charged that women, both Asiatic and European, were assaulted and murdered and one entire Chinese district was designated as a brothel, regardless of the status of the residents.

All survivors of the Hongkong garrison were herded into a camp of brick huts without doors, windows, light or sanitation, he said.

The dead had to be buried in a corner of the camp.

No drugs or medical facilities were supplied, he declared.

He said eye witnesses had confirmed the reports of Japanese atrocities in Hongkong: that the atrocities were committed without race or color distinctions and were of the same kind which aroused the world's horror at the time of the Nanking massacre in 1937.

The Japanese actions, he said, apparently would not bear independent investigation as permission was refused for a representative of the Red Cross to go there.

PLAN TO SHIFT MANY WOMEN TO WAR FACTORIES

Washington, March 10 (AP)—An official war inventory of the nation's human resources declared today that millions of women would have to be shifted from housework to munitions factories in the expansion of war industries.

The survey was made by the Bureau of Census. It contained no specific mention of proposals that American women be drafted into factories as women are in England, but asserted:

"The maximum movement into the male labor force can hardly exceed 2,000,000 men. A larger expansion of the total labor supply evidently can be achieved only by drawing millions of women into the labor force."

The report said that 15,600,000 housewives between 18 and 44 years old represented the principal reserve from which additional war labor might be drawn.

The report acknowledged that many women were prevented from taking jobs by family responsibilities, but said flatly:

"The groups from which most of the additional workers must be drawn are the women engaged in home housework or not in the labor force for other reasons."

Although the report predicted a shift of young, unmarried women from rural areas into cities where they could be directly employed in war industries, it said that the great majority of the needed increase in the labor supply must come from women in urban and rural nonfarm areas.

STRONG WINDS SWEEP STATE

The gusts which whipped as high as 80 miles an hour in Pittsburgh uprooted trees, overturned small buildings, blew down signs and damaged roofs in virtually every section of the state Monday.

Telephone and telegraph poles toppled before 50-mile an hour blasts in Lancaster county. Plate glass windows were shattered in Pittsburgh and Allentown, and in Philadelphia, some downtown building entrances were roped off as huge display signs swayed crazily.

The winds reached a 65-mile an hour velocity in the Allentown area, uprooted two houses in the city proper and leveled a stone barn at Breinigsville, killing two horses and a mule. A huge oak tree also was uprooted. It fell on a garage, smashing a new car. Two passers-by were cut by flying glass when large display windows gave way in an Allentown department store.

In Harrisburg, Mrs. Leah Coble, 47, was injured in a fall while trying to dodge falling power lines which carried 11,000 volts.

Power poles and lines in that area were ripped from moorings, but authorities said no major damage resulted.

KING OPERATED UPON
Stockholm, Sweden, March 10 (AP)—King Gustaf V, 83, who was operated on yesterday for removal of a bladder stone, passed a quiet night, an official medical bulletin said today. His condition was described as satisfactory.

OIL SITUATION IS "VERY ACUTE"

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Petroleum coordinator Ickes today described the oil situation in the east as "very acute," indicating that measures might be taken immediately to curtail consumption in the area.

An informed source said the coordinator might institute a program of limited supplies for filling stations and night closings of the stations, the method used last summer and fall to cut eastern gasoline consumption.

Speculation was current that the gasoline supplies for filling stations might be reduced 25 per cent, and the stations in turn would limit their deliveries to motorists, allowing a specified number of gallons for each purchaser.

Maroon Cagers To Meet Mount Penn For District Three Pennant Friday Night On Harrisburg Palestra Court

A definite decision was made Monday afternoon to hold the Gettysburg-Mt. Penn District 3 championship basketball game on the Palestra court in Harrisburg Friday evening.

Coach George Forney and Prof. Guile W. Lefever reached the decision to hold the game there after surveying the floor and accommodations on Monday.

Formerly known as the Chestnut Street auditorium, the floor was reconditioned a number of years ago and was renamed the Palestra. A capacity crowd of 2,000 can be taken care of for basketball games.

Tickets On Sale

Professor Lefever announced today that tickets for the game are now on sale at the high school building and will remain on sale until Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The admission price will again be 55c for adults and 30c for students.

Doors to the Palestra will open at 7 o'clock with the game getting underway at 8 o'clock.

It was also announced today that "Bill" Doremus and "Yummy" Armpreister will be officials for the tilt. Armpreister is a former Reading basketball star and officiated in a game at Gettysburg college this season.

From reports Coach Forney has received on the Mt. Penn quintet the Maroons are in for a busy evening when they clash with the Berks county champions. Mt. Penn, which is in reality a suburb of Reading, boasts the best team in its history and makes no secret of the fact it expects to knock off Gettysburg.

Stiff workouts will be held for the local dribblers today and Wednesday with the usual light workout Thursday.

LOOP AWAITS NEW MEMBERS

Allentown, Pa., March 10 (AP)—The question of a six or eight team membership of the Class B Interstate league was left up to the directors today, with a deadline for their decision.

It came after a spokesman told the group that Walter A. Jones, wealthy Pittsburgh oil man, is interested in taking over the Reading, Pa., franchise.

If that happens, said League President Arthur H. Ehlers of Baltimore, "I personally will take over the eighth franchise, and operate it in some city yet to be selected."

These developments came during a day-long meeting yesterday at which the directors were unable to agree on the league make-up for 1942.

Six Post Forfeit

Six teams already have posted forfeits, and Ehlers said the directors had been instructed to make known to him their preference for the size of the league by Wednesday night. He hopes to announce the complete schedule, together with the 1942 membership at that time.

Both Reading and Bridgeport, Connecticut, withdrew during the winter, leaving Harrisburg, Lancaster, Allentown in Pennsylvania; Trenton, New Jersey, Wilmington, Delaware, and Hagerstown, Maryland, in the circuit.

Ehlers said he wouldn't seek major league connections if he operated the eighth club, but would run it independently.

Officials of the Harrisburg Senators, meanwhile, told the meeting they had communicated with York, Pa., interests who feel that city should be represented again. York dropped out in 1940. The directors took no action on this report.

It was announced that Richard (Lefty) Lloyd had been named manager of Trenton.

W. And J. Grid Coach Goes To Miami, Ohio

Oxford, O., March 10 (AP)—Stuart Holcomb, 32-year-old football and track coach at Washington and Jefferson college, Washington, Pa., was appointed head football coach at Miami university here.

Holcomb's appointment was announced by Merin A. Dittmer, director of intercollegiate athletics, and ended a three-month search for a successor to Frank Wilton, whose resignation becomes effective in June.

Holcomb, captain of the 1931 Ohio State university football team, coached football at Findlay college and Muskingum college before going to Washington and Jefferson last season.

He will come here next Tuesday to direct spring football practice and select an assistant within 24 hours, Dittmer said.

Lem Franklin To Attempt Comeback

Pittsburgh, March 10 (AP)—Lem Franklin, slugging Cleveland negro who was knocked almost into fistic oblivion by Bob Pastor last month, will try a comeback here March 30 against Pittsburgh's promising young negro heavyweight, Harry Bobo.

Promoter Jake Mintz, matchmaker for the Rooney-McGinley company, sports promoters, announced he had signed the bout.

CAGE LEAGUE LOSES MEMBER

There'll be no merger of the West Shore and Twin County basketball league. It was decided Monday at a meeting in Steelton. In fact, it begins to look as though there may not even be a Twin County league.

Lemoine high school Monday dropped its membership in the Twin County circuit, contending that competition in two leagues was too strenuous for its athletes. Enola high intimidated it may follow suit.

When the discussion arose about the merger of the two leagues, Biglerville high and Boiling Springs high, only two West Shore loop teams not in the Twin County circuit, voiced objections. These two schools objected to the merger only because traveling conditions will be more difficult next year and they did not want to make two more long trips.

Six Teams in Loop
As it now stands, the West Shore league will operate next year with six teams, all of those who competed this year except Newville which dropped from the league at a previous meeting.

The Twin County league if it operates at all will probably include only Camp Hill, New Cumberland, Swatara Township and Middletown high schools.

Zivic Halts Izzy Jannazzo In Fifth

Pittsburgh, March 10 (AP)—Fritzie Zivic, the last of Pittsburgh's fighting Zivic clan, battered the name and willing Izzy Jannazzo of New York, so badly last night his opponent was unable to answer the bell for the fifth round of their ten round battle.

Zivic, who weighed 151 to 148 for Jannazzo, closed the New Yorker's operates at all will probably include only Camp Hill, New Cumberland, Swatara Township and Middletown high schools.

There's a possibility that the Southern Pennsylvania conference may split into two divisions next year to eliminate long trips. If this happens, it was pointed out that Mechanicsburg and Hershey high schools may not have a big league schedule and that they may favor joining the Twin County league, at the same time playing their limited schedule in the South Penn loop.

Mechanicsburg is now in the West Shore Baseball league while Hershey is aligned with Middletown and Swatara in the Central Penn Baseball league.

The twin county loop will hold another meeting in the near future, President Fred Pfeiffer said Monday night.

PLAYOFF TILT HERE TONIGHT

"Jake" Drache, of Gettysburg, and George Kohler, of York, have been selected as the officials for the game to be played on the Gettysburg high school floor between Mercersburg and Swatara Township high school this evening at 8 o'clock.

The game is a semi-final affair in the Class B, District 3 playoffs. Mercersburg advanced to the second round by defeating Arendtsville, Adams county titlist, while Swatara turned back Spring Grove, York county champ.

The winner will play the victor of the Lykens-Myerstown game, scheduled for Steelton tonight, in the championship game Friday evening at Steelton.

Prof. Guile W. Lefever, who will be in charge of the game here tonight, has announced the doors will open at 7 o'clock. Adults will be charged 55c and students 30c.

There were 211 trumpeter swans counted in the United States in 1941. The breed has been almost extinct for more than a decade but has increased from 33 counted birds in 1933.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 10—The metropolitan baseball tournament, competing for talent with the N.C.A.A., may not get the best college teams here, but it's doing right well with colorful individuals.

Already lined up are Rhode Island's Stutz Modzlewski, who has scored 1,714 points in four seasons, Price Brookfield of West Texas, with 1,649, and Bob Gerber, who rang up 487 for Toledo this year. . . . We'd like to see that Tucker boy from Oklahoma and comedian Bones McKinney of North Carolina State added to the list. . . . Merv Shea, the Tigers' coach, has won all sorts of prizes playing golf this spring but Mrs. Shea isn't satisfied. "Look," she said one day, "don't they ever put up mink coats as prizes?"

THEY WUZ ROBBED

We can't give names and dates on this one, but some of the college boxing coaches claim it happened.

Seems there was a small college that specialized in fistcuffing. . . . One season it came up with a good team led by a heavyweight who looked like a clinch to win the national intercollegiate title. . . . but he never did. An unscrupulous rival dug up the rule that each fighter had to sign his entry blank—and the heavyweight couldn't write.

Jimmy Dykes, the man with the big cigars, decided to do his spring training by smoking only a pipe. And the first day in camp he mislaid the pipe. . . . Another basketball record is claimed for Robert Edwards, Shoals (Ind) high school guard. He tried a pass the full length of a 76-foot court and saw it bounce off the backboard for a field goal. . . . Maybe Oklahoma knows now how Kansas State felt about Gerald Tucker. It's reported that Leo Pressley, 225-pound freshman tackle, has quit the Sooners to go to Tulsa U. . . . Wallace Wade, the Duke grid coach, may go back into the Army as a major. He was a captain during the last war. . . . Louisville should have a well-managed ball club this year. Manager Bill Burwell will have two ex-managers of other clubs, Red Kress and Lee Riley, working for him.

POSTMAN'S PARAGRAPH
Perfectly willing to start an argument, Sports Ed Jesse Linticum of the Baltimore Sun suggests that Maryland is the nation's champion home run state. He lists among its products J. Franklin (Home Run) Baker, Babe Ruth, Joe Hausser, the old Oriole first baseman who made the minor league mark of 63, seven other Orioles who hit more than 100 homers in the International league, Jimmy Foxx and the newest candidate for swatting honors, the Cubs' Bill Nicholson.

LOOKING AROUND

By DON BREAM
Sports Editor

Anyone thinking that Mt. Penn high will prove a pushover for Gettysburg when the teams clash in the District 33 championship game Friday evening at Harrisburg had better erase that thought. Last year Mt. Penn gave William Penn high a terrific battle before losing out in one of the district eliminations and this year's squad is practically the same as that of a year ago. Excluding the playoff tilt, Mt. Penn has won 25 straight games on its regular schedule and this year is unbeaten in capturing the Berks county championship for the second successive year.

George Barger, secretary-treasurer of the Adams County Independent baseball league, plans to contact representatives of last year's teams in the near future sounding them out on the advisability of continuing the league this summer. However, rumors floating around from practically every community indicates there is little likelihood the league will function. Many of the teams have been hard hit by the draft. Transportation will form another problem while it is believed patronage of games would not justify the expenses required in organizing.

BEST BALL PLAY KAYOES STARS

By JOHN WILDS
Miami, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The trickiest golf of all—best ball competition—robbed the Miami Biltmore's four ball tournament of its gallery-getters before the semifinals were reached today.

In a tournament where every player bangs away at the cup, and courageous putters come to the fore, victims included Sammy Sneed and Ralph Guldahl, Craig Wood and Billy Burke, Jimmy Demaret and Lawson Little, Clayton Heafner and Lloyd Mangrum, Byron Nelson and Henry Picard, Jimmy Thomson and Harry Cooper, Horton Smith and Paul Runyan.

In four ball golf, players gamble. They shoot boldly for the pin, secure in the knowledge that their partner will backstop them with a saving par.

The semi-finalist team of Chandler Harper and Herman Keiser was an example. They could not match yesterday the individual brilliance of Picard and Nelson, yet they took turns winning just enough holes to triumph, one-up.

Their opponents today were the 1941 winners—Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., and Gene Sarazen, who scored, 3 and 2, over Herman Barrow and Tony Penna.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 10—The metropolitan baseball tournament, competing for talent with the N.C.A.A., may not get the best college teams here, but it's doing right well with colorful individuals. . . . Already lined up are Rhode Island's Stutz Modzlewski, who has scored 1,714 points in four seasons, Price Brookfield of West Texas, with 1,649, and Bob Gerber, who rang up 467 for Toledo this year. . . . We'd like to see that Tucker boy from Oklahoma and comedian Bones McKinney of North Carolina State added to the list. . . . Merv Shea, the Tigers' coach, has won all sorts of prizes playing golf this spring but Mrs. Shea isn't satisfied. "Look," she said one day, "don't they ever put up mink coats as prizes?"

We can't give names and dates on this one, but some of the college boxing coaches claim it happened.

Seems there was a small college that specialized in fisticuffing. . . . One season it came up with a good team led by a heavyweight who looked like a clinch to win the national intercollegiate title. . . . but he never did. An unscrupulous rival dug up the rule that each fighter had to sign his entry blank—and the heavyweight couldn't write.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Trainer John Gaver says he had no idea of entering the Rhymers in the Widener handicap until he learned Eddie Arco was free, then he decided to take a "shot at the moon." . . . The Japanese submarine that shelled the California coast recently, fired head coach Stanley Williamson of Santa Barbara Junior college right into the Navy. The school decided to drop all athletics so Stanley got a commission in the Naval Reserve. . . . Father Flanagan reports that every one of his Boy's Town kids plans to register to play baseball March 30 when the national semi-pro baseball congress holds its national registration day. . . . Ward Lambert, Purdue's basketball coach, gets a free dinner to-night for having been able to survive 25 seasons of Big Ten basketball.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

John P. Carmichael, Chicago Daily News: "Joe Louis knocks out Abe Simon. . . . Lem Franklin knocks out Simon. . . . Bob Pastor, who lost twice to Louis, knocks out Franklin. . . . so Louis and Simon fight again for the championship. . . . try that on your baby grand!"

SPORTPOURRI

Jimmy Dykes, the man with the big cigars, decided to do his spring training by smoking only a pipe. And the first day in camp he mislaid the pipe. . . . Another basketball record is claimed for Robert Edwards, Shoals (Ind.) high school guard. He tried a pass the full length of a 75-foot court and saw it bounce off the backboard for a field goal. . . . Maybe Oklahoma knows now how Kansas State felt about Gerald Tucker. It's reported that Leo Pressley, 225-pound freshman tackle, has quit the Sooners to go to Tulsa U. . . . Wallace Wade, the Duke grid coach, may go back into the Army as a major. He was a captain during the last war. . . . Louisville should have a well-managed ball club this year. Manager Bill Burwell will have two ex-managers of other clubs, Red Kress and Lee Riley, working for him.

POSTMAN'S PARAGRAPH

Perfectly willing to start an argument, Sports Ed Jesse Lintinich of the Baltimore Sun suggests that Maryland is the nation's champion home run state. He lists among its products J. Franklin (Home Run) Baker, Babe Ruth, Joe Hauser, the old Oriole first baseman who made the minor league mark of 63, seven other Orioles who hit more than 100 homers in the International league, Jimmy Foxx and the newest candidate for swatting honors, the Cubs' Bill Nicholson.

CAGE LEAGUE LOSES MEMBER

There'll be no merger of the West Shore and Twin County basketball league, it was decided Monday at a meeting in Steelton. In fact, it begins to look as though there may not even be a Twin County league.

Lemoine high school Monday dropped its membership in the Twin County circuit, contending that competition in two leagues was too strenuous for its athletes. Enola high intimated it may follow suit.

When the discussion arose anent the merger of the two leagues, Biglerville high and Bolling Springs high, only two West Shore loop teams not in the Twin County circuit, voiced objections. These two schools objected to the merger only because traveling conditions will be more difficult next year and they did not want to make two more long trips.

Six Teams in Loop

As it now stands, the West Shore league will operate next year with six teams, all of those who competed this year except Newville which dropped from the league at a previous meeting.

Zivic Halts Izzy Jannazzo In Fifth

Pittsburgh, March 10 (AP)—Fritz Zivic, the last of Pittsburgh's fighting Zivic clan, battered the game and willing Izzy Jannazzo of New York, so badly last night his opponent was unable to answer the bell for the fifth round of their ten round battle.

Zivic, who weighed 151 to 148 for Jannazzo, closed the New Yorker's operates at all will probably include only Camp Hill, New Cumberland, Swatara Township and Middletown high schools.

There's a possibility that the Southern Pennsylvania conference may split into two divisions next year to eliminate long trips. If this happens, it was pointed out that Mechanicsburg and Hershey high schools may not have a big league schedule and that they may favor joining the Twin County league, at the same time playing their limited schedule in the South Penn loop. Mechanicsburg is now in the West Shore Baseball league while Hershey is aligned with Middletown and Swatara in the Central Penn Baseball league.

The twin county loop will hold another meeting in the near future, President Fred Peiffer said Monday night.

right eye completely by the end of the fourth round and was awarded a technical knockout by the referee.

For Zivic, a former featherweight champion, the triumph was a pleasing one, because he had entered the ring on the short end of the betting odds, and after being beaten in Chicago recently by Tony Motisi, a relatively unknown fighter. He also had lost twice to Ray (Sugar) Robinson and dropped his crown last summer to Red Cochrane of Newark.

A capacity crowd of 6,500 paid $13,475 to see the fight, in which Zivic won every round.

Bell To Manage Springfield Team

Springfield, Mass., March 10 (AP)—Lester Bell, who directed the Harrisburg, Pa., Senators to an Interstate league championship last year, is the new manager of the reorganized Springfield Eastern league team.

His appointment to the Class A loop was announced by President Mark H. Kelliher, who headed a syndicate which yesterday revealed acquisition of the club from John E. Cambria of Cincinnati.

John (Red) Marion, whom Cambria had retained as manager to succeed Walter (Rabbit) Maranville, will be kept as a player under the new set-up.

PLAYOFF TILT HERE TONIGHT

"Jake" Dracha, of Gettysburg, and George Kohler, of York, have been selected as the officials for the game to be played on the Gettysburg high school floor between Mercersburg and Swatara Township high school this evening at 8 o'clock.

The game is a semi-final affair in the Class B, District 3 playoffs. Mercersburg advanced to the second round by defeating Arendtsville, Adams county titlist, while Swatara turned back Spring Grove, York county champ.

The winner will play the victor of the game to be played on the Gettysburg high school floor between Mercersburg and Swatara Township high school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Prof. Guile W. Lefever, who will be in charge of the game here to-night, has announced the doors will open at 7 o'clock. Adults will be charged 55c and students 30c.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

ON EXPECTING THE BEST
All the health and happiness we ever expect to have or own, is largely directed from the upper portion of our heads. It has been said that nothing is good or evil but thinking makes it so.

Meet a vital, radiating personality and you see before you a healthy human being. It is no "Pollyanna" act to look upon the bright side of things, or always to expect the best in life. It is natural to be normal—and therefore healthy and strong.

When you meet a person who is always suspecting the world to come to an end, or expecting to see all the good in the world—all its advancements and freedoms—thrown into the discard, you know at once you are listening to a sick person, one who is abnormal and disorganized.

People who expect the best are never found weak when the worst appears, for the worst always looks so insignificant beside the best, and is soon mastered. Every magnificent success had to experience being a magnificent failure first!

There is a lot of difference between being idly complaisant and sternly ready to meet whatever arises.

He who is forever expecting the best to happen is nearly always mis-judged. It "hurts" some people to meet a man who is courageously ready for any emergency—and says so. But it is just such calmness and faith that have inspired leadership ever since history began.

Underneath the glass on my work desk is this inspiring little poem by the late Rebecca McCann:

"I'd rather always fail in life
And die unnoticed and in need,
And keep my high aims in my heart,
Than aim at small things and succeed."

We see such a bigger, more wonderful world before us, and we are urged to be so much more useful, and helpful, when we always look for the best, even though we may have to go through many a hell to reach our heaven!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Overlooking."

Just Folks

CRANKMIRE ON SMUGNESS
"Now," said old Crankmire, "we've boasted enough!
It's high time we started performing our stuff.
Not all our fine speeches will conquer those chaps;
We've got to have bullets to battle
the Japs.
It's war they are making, and now
all that counts
Are ships and torpedoes and cannon and mounds.
The side with the finest equipment will win,
Not the thumbers of nose and the waggers of chin."

"In wartime, the saddest mistake that I know
Is smugness, which always belittles the foe.
That smugness, of national pride and conceit,
Which imagines it never will suffer defeat,
Is blind to all danger and deaf to all pleas,
When it should be alert is asleep or at ease.
But we're doomed to defeat when the shooting begins
If we're just thumbing noses and wagging our chins."

"Let's cut out the chatter and silence the word!
Let only the sound of our hammers be heard.
The greatest of countries! Let's prove it with guns!
That's all that can speed the return of our sons.
The greatest of countries! Let's furnish the Yanks
With airships and steamships and cannon and tanks
It's bullets they're shooting, not needles and pins.
Let's be makers of war stuff, not waggers of chins."

Admiral King Is In Command Of Naval Operations

TRIPLE THREAT SPECIALIST IN THREE SPHERES

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The supreme command of all United States Naval operations was concentrated today in the hands of Admiral Ernest J. King, a triple threat specialist in surface, air and submarine warfare.

King, who was already commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet, took over the duties heretofore entrusted to Admiral Harold R. Stark as chief of Naval operations.

This consolidation of authority—a possible hint of further streamlining in the Navy's organization—gave King control not only of combat activities but also of the general planning and fleet maintenance, formerly the province of the chief of Naval operations.

New Job For Stark
Secretary of Navy Knox announced the change in a formal statement last night which disclosed the assignment of Admiral Stark to a newly created post of "commander, U. S. Naval forces operating in European waters."

The Navy changes followed closely the Army's reorganization of its general staff into a smaller, younger group, but it remained to be seen whether the two moves would quiet Congressional agitation for a greater unification in the direction of the nation's war effort.

That Army reorganization, which became effective yesterday, reduced the general staff to a fifth of its former size and gave greater recognition to air force men. Excepting the Chief of Staff, General George C. Marshall, who is 61, the streamlined staff has an average age of 48.

Sole Authority
However, Congress was urged by Senator La Follette (Prog-Wis) to order an investigation to determine whether legislation was needed to produce closer coordination of Army, Navy and Air Corps. Other Senators agreed with his objective.

The Navy changes were considered a necessary preliminary to any such strategy board, for it ended the division of authority that existed between King and Stark and put King in absolute charge under President Roosevelt and Secretary Knox.

Stark's new post, it was said, will be comparable to that held by Admiral William S. Sims, World War commander of U. S. Naval forces overseas.

A special staff was set up in the Navy department to administer the duties which King took from Stark, and this staff, like General Marshall's streamlined counterpart, will share responsibility in mapping the offensive operations which both Army and Navy chiefs have forecast.

A stern disciplinarian, who is not given to talk, King has a service reputation for getting things done.
During the time he commanded the Atlantic fleet in the pre-war patrol against Axis sea raids, it was said that he always kept his ships "one speech ahead of the President."

Sounds Air Raid Alarm For Fire

Tarentum, Pa., March 10 (AP)—
This Allegheny valley industrial town had a full-blown air raid scare last night—and it was all caused by the tune an engineer inadvertently played when he sounded the new fire siren on the Allegheny-Ludlum
Steel corporation plant.

Fire broke out in the plant's grease house and the engineer in summoning firemen unwittingly sounded the siren intermittently, in a cycle like that prescribed in air raid regulations. There was no
"blackout"—instead it was a "light-up" as sleepy citizens piled out of bed and turned on their lights to see what all the excitement was about.

The police station and every other official agency was deluged with phone calls and hundreds milled in the streets until they were assured that no enemy planes were overhead.

The fire? That did small damage but three firemen suffered slight injuries in extinguishing it.

Allies May Occupy Madagascar Island

London, March 10 (AP)—Unofficial quarters discussed the possibility today that Allied troops might soon move to occupy the Vichy-controlled island of Madagascar in the western part of the Indian ocean, close to Africa's east coast and in a strategic position to control Allied supply lines.

They pointed out that since the fall of Singapore the importance of Madagascar has been doubled, and that such an Allied move might have to be made to forestall Japanese occupation of the island.

THIS IS TERRIBLE!
Phillipsburg, Pa., March 10 (AP)— Police Chief Edwin Gustafson is hunting—on foot—the thief who jacked up his automobile Monday and removed two wheels. When the chief rose this morning he found the wheels gone and the car still on the jacks.

Flashes of Life

GOOD HUNTING

Atlanta (AP)—Mrs. T. L. Harrison grabbed a fire poker and climbed on a chair when her husband cornered a mouse. The mouse came toward her chair, she got excited, the chair slipped from under her. She fell on the mouse and killed it.

WHAT A SURPRISE!
Atlanta (AP)—A prospective father, Bruce Manning of the Atlanta Constitution, paced back and forth in the waiting room of a hospital here—eager for news.
Suddenly, friends dropped in, informed him that for two hours he had been the father of an eight pound girl, and offered congratulations. They obtained the information from hospital telephone operators.

SHADES OF GRANDPA!
Liberty, Mo. (AP)—The spectators almost overlooked the fire-the feature attraction was Chief Leo Jackson clattering up on horseback.

No, it wasn't the tire rationing, the chief answered. He just happened to be exercising one of his own horses when the alarm came in, and why waste time getting off the horse?

Since the chief pulled up along with the first engine, no one could answer that one.

FLOOD FEARS ARE ALLAYED

Pittsburgh, March 10 (AP)—Fears of floods in the upper Ohio river watershed were allayed today by a sudden cold wave, which was ushered in by gale-like winds.

Rains over the week-end, following upon last week's heavy snowstorm, had started streams surging upward throughout western Pennsylvania.

W. S. Brotzman, weather forecaster here, predicted a crest of 23 to 24 feet late today at the confluence of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers where flood stage is 25 feet.

Last night the treacherous Con-emaugh river at Johnstown reached a peak of 6.6 feet, some 7 feet below flood level and started dropping. At Franklin, up the Allegheny, the water rose to 15 feet, two below flood level. By midnight the Monongahela had begun falling around Brownsville, several feet below flood stage.

At Rice's Landing, near Brown-sville, six barges loaded with 5,000 tons of soft coal broke out of control in the turbulent waters, and were cut loose by the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation's steamer Homestead. Skillful maneuvering by Captain John Moses prevented any damage occurring to the steamer and no men were hurt. The barges, however, lost their cargoes valued at about $10,000.

BUYING TIME AGAIN SLASHED

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The Federal Reserve board has laid down new installment buying regulations which will cut the credit period from 18 to 15 months on most articles commonly purchased on time and require a greater down payment. The order, announced Sunday, is effective March 23.

Exempted from the new time limit were residential modernization, plumbing, furnaces, water heaters,
water pumps and pianos.

Down payment minimums were increased as follows: refrigerators, washing machines, ironers, vacuum cleaners, electric dishwashers, room unit air conditioners, sewing machines, radios, phonographs and musical instruments, from 20 per cent to 33 1-3; furnaces, water heaters, water pumps, and plumbing from 15 per cent to 20; home air conditioning systems and attic ventilating fans, from 15 per cent to 33 1-3.

Added to the list of articles under regulation were bicycles, lawn mowers, silverware and photographic equipment, on which a 33 1-3 per cent down payment will be required, and clocks, watches and floor coverings, 20 per cent.

The order also provided that after April 1 the maximum credit value allowable on a used car will be the actual purchase price or the "appraised guide value" plus taxes, whichever is lower.

SUBSTITUTE TO BE USED

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The War Production board announced Monday that it planned wherever possible to require substitution of tin-coated lead and tin-lead alloys for collapsible metal tubes heretofore made of tin, and to eliminate tube packing of nonessentials.

North Carolina's four cigarette plants produce more cigarettes than the combined remaining twenty-three establishments, located in nine other states.

SOLONS SEEKING EXTRA PAY FOR EXTRA SESSION

Harrisburg, March 10 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Legislature started its fourth week in special session Monday embroiled in a dispute over war powers for Governor James and with little prospect of adjournment before an extra $250 per member becomes payable next week.

If the session, which started February 17, goes beyond 30 days, an additional $63,500 in salaries becomes due to the 204 active representatives and 50 senators. Each receives $500 for the first month.

In the first three weeks, the Assembly enacted a bill cutting the state's congressional districts from 34 to 33 to meet requirements of the 1940 census. That was the major reason for calling the legislators back into session. The regular session lasted seven months last year.

Power Bill Tussle
A measure permitting building and loan associations to sell defense bonds is in position for enactment this week.

But the major problem from the start has been the Governor's request that he and the State Defense Council be empowered to suspend or modify laws found to be hampering the war program.

Opposition arose in both parties, and the Senate is engaged in a search for a compromise while the Governor's recommendations are held in committee. Republican and Democratic senators are split over whether to limit the subject matter of laws in which the Defense Council could recommend changes, or to keep the Assembly in session to act on legal questions as they arise, recessing in the intervals.

Governor James, although asserting he would "work with the tools" the Legislature gives him, suggested the members consult their constituents during the week-end recess and "not the weighty tomes of law and judicial decisions."

Wants Action Now
The Governor, warning of the approaching danger of air raids and wartime emergencies, said he had found public sentiment favoring action "now, not next summer."

Other legislation moved out of committee in the House in the first large scale activity in that branch last week, and the bills now are in position to be sent to the Senate by Wednesday.

They include measures to increase unemployment compensation benefits, impose stiff penalties for violations of Defense Council regulations for blackouts and air raids, establish a branch office of the Bureau of Vital Statistics at Erie, suspend until after the war the uniform traffic signal requirements effective this year, and withhold local compensation to dependents of public employees in the military service whose earnings now exceed their former salaries.

A survey of state department heads disclosed many had requested law changes to cope with war-time problems already present or developing daily.

Uncle Sam has been training

Pensacola, Fla., air station, the Navy's first, was established in December, 1914.

White Hill Youth Located In Erie

Erie, Pa., March 10 (AP)—James Daye, 19, of Erie, who escaped from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at White Hill February 25, was recaptured early today as he slept in the basement of a home, Police Chief George J. Christoph reported.

Christoph said police had learned Daye had been in Erie since last Saturday. The youth was held for authorities from the school, Christoph said, adding that Daye had admitted participating in nine robberies last November.

JAMES NAMES COMMITTEE ON CIVIL SERVICE

Harrisburg, March 10 (AP)— Without comment Governor James cleared the way today for centralization of control over civil service for state employees.

He sent to the Senate the nominations of Mrs. Ruth Pennell, of Millittown; John A. McCarthy, Philadelphia, and Robert Hall Craig, Harrisburg, to form a commission supervising the merit system.

The new commission—first in the state—will assume duties previously performed by the board of review in the Division of Unemployment Compensation, the employment board in the Department of Public Assistance, and a special staff in the Liquor Control Board.

The commission will also supervise merit rating in other departments which have a smattering of civil service.

It was created by the 1941 Legislature to handle civil service on a centralized basis as demanded by the Federal Social Security Board.
Commissioners are to be paid $25
a day and expenses when they work.
However, the total compensation for the first year is not to exceed $2,500 for any one member.

The commissioner's terms were staggered, Craig's for six years; Mrs.
Pennell's for four, and McCarthy's for two.

The new commission has 90 days in which to choose an executive director, whose pay for the first year is limited to $7,500. The director's salary may be boosted after that to a maximum of $10,000.

Mrs. Pennell and Craig now are members of the employment board.

The first paper mill in the United States was built in 1690 at Germantown, Pa.

Victory Gardens

This is the second in a series of six stories on how to get the most out of your war garden.

By ROBERT GEIGER

In deciding what to plant in your war garden, take into consideration nutrition and family food tastes as well as the physical characteristics of your garden site and soil.

The Food for Freedom program recommends each farm family of the nation include at least 20 varieties in its 1942 garden.

This may not be possible for city dwellers, with small space available, and they should concentrate on foods high in vitamins and minerals.

Green Crops Best
United States Department of Agriculture nutrition and gardening experts have his advice for 1942 war gardening city farmers:

"Of all the garden crops we grow, none as a group surpasses the green, leafy vegetables in vitamin and mineral content.

"Chard, collards, kale, spin-ach, lettuce and turnip greens they're all rich in vitamin A, the vitamin that lets eyes see better in a blackout—and iron, the mineral that makes red blood cells and supplants the pal-lor of anemia with the warmth of a schoolgirl's blush.

"Tomatoes are so widely adapted to both soil and climate that they should be generally and generously grown both for eating fresh and for canning. What they lack in iron and calcium they more than make up in ascorbic acid (vitamin C) and in addition they are high in vitamin A and thiamin of the vitamin B group.

MAN, 50, KNITS 50 SWEATERS

Lancaster, Pa., March 10 (AP)—Grabill L. Hauk, 50-year old night watchman, believes that everyone should do his bit, so he's knitting 50 sweaters for the Red Cross.

And he has only three more to go.

"When I was a little fellow," related the hulking six-footer, "I would sit at my mother's feet holding the yarn while she knitted. I watched her and so memorized her movements that I was sure I could knit."

During the first World War, he whipped up a couple of sweaters for himself and then forgot about it.

"But when this war came along and the Red Cross began making appeals for help, I decided I wanted to do something," he went on.

Hauk's request for yarn at the Red Cross headquarters brought some kidding, but when he came back with the finished garment, examiners pronounced it one of the best turned in.

DOMINION RULE FOR INDIA SEEN AS "CERTAINTY"

By DREW MIDDLETON

London, March 10 (AP)—Dominion status for India as the price for her millions' war support for Britain was regarded in British circles today as a virtual certainty and the weight of cabinet influence apparently was veering toward an offer which would be put into force promptly.

With the mailed fist of the Japanese army beating on the door of the empire's treasure chamber and its people's attitude tepid toward Britain because of unfulfilled aspirations for freedom, the cabinet debated the measure of Indian independence Saturday and yesterday.

Informed sources said the snag was on the timing of dominion status—whether to grant it now or promise it at a deferred date.

Sir Stafford Cripps was said to be leading the fight for an immediate grant to India of the same rank in the commonwealth as Canada and the other dominions. Prime Minister Churchill, formerly an advocate of strong British rule in India, was believed to be swinging toward the same opinion, it was reported.

Essentially, there are three plans for India believed to be before the cabinet:

1. A flat offer of post-war dominion status.
2. A gradual grant of dominion status during the war.
3. An offer of immediate dominion status.

Indians here have declared that the only plan acceptable to their countrymen would be the third—and that it would represent the minimum of India's demands. Others say that even immediate dominion status would be unsatisfactory, that Indians have reached a point where they would accept nothing but a "completely independent nation."

To most Britons dominion status means independence and the nation generally is expected to accept such a grant calmly. There are signs in the press even of impatience for a decision.

On the other hand, there is a large British group with extensive interests in India and it is hesitant about an immediate introduction of dominion status. Most of its strength is among the conservatives, Churchill's own party.

The cabinet, supposedly shifting between the first and third plans, thus might choose the second as a compromise.

Former Seminary Student Expires

Portland, Me., March 10 (AP)—The Rev. Leo C. Broe, 35, pastor of Our Savior's Danish Lutheran church at Manistee, Michigan, from 1935-39, died yesterday. He was stricken ill while taking post graduate courses at the Gettysburg, Pa., theological seminary last fall.

The Rev. Mr. Broe studied at the Lutheran seminary here for about a month last fall when he was stricken ill. He appeared in good health, robust and in good spirit. His ailment here was said to have been in the nature of a nervous breakdown and he decided to take a rest before continuing the course.

Churchill's statement to the House of Commons on India, which Indians had expected today, caused disappointment here.

In a cable to Churchill, Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the All-Indian Moslem league, said Moslem India would "revolt" if the statement were detrimental to Moslem interests, particularly the plan to divide India into autonomous Moslem and Hindu states.

Jinnah's threat was widely regarded here as having been made in deadly earnest and it was believed, an overwhelming majority of Moslems would rally behind such a slogan as "Britain betrayed Moslem India."

There are about 77,000,000 Moslems and 340,000,000 Hindus in India.

F.D.R. WARNING ON INFLATION AIDS FARM BLOC

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Administration leaders in the House pointed today to a sober warning by President Roosevelt against inflation and profiteering as one good reason why the farm bloc should agree to abandon farm price restrictions in an agricultural appropriation bill.

The President, in broadcasting a message last night on the ninth anniversary of the national farm program, made no direct reference to the current effort of farm state legislators to bar the sale of government-held farm surpluses at sub-parity prices.

Cites Dangerous Inflation

"But if all prices keep on going up," he emphasized, "we shall have inflation of a very dangerous kind—we shall have such a steep rise in prices and the cost of living that the entire nation will be hurt."

"That would greatly increase the cost of the war and the national debt, hamper the drive for victory, and inevitably plunge everyone—city workers and farmers alike—into ruinous deflation later on."

Mr. Roosevelt has been outspoken in his objections to the surplus-at-parity restriction demanded by the farm bloc. He declared recently that such a concession would raise the nation's eating bill by a billion dollars a year. His leader on the House floor, Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, announced he would try to eliminate the restriction tomorrow, when debate on the bill will be resumed.

[Parity prices are computed levels at which farmers' real income, in terms of non-farm products, would equal their income in 1909-14.]

Cooperation Needed

The fight against inflation, the Chief Executive declared in his broadcast, is as vital as any fought with bullets and bombs.

"It calls," he said, "for cooperation and restraint on the part of every group."

"It calls for unflinching vigilance and effective action by the government to prevent profiteering and unfair returns, alike for services and for goods."

He said that 90 per cent of the population was cooperating and remarked that "if less than 10 per cent of the population is chiseling we still have a pretty good national record."

To Present Spiritual Program

The five Eppley sisters, graduates of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., will present a spiritual program at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Bendersville, Sunday evening, March 22 at 7:45 o'clock.

The vocal talent of the five sisters is widely known in church circles. They have appeared a number of times on special programs in this vicinity. They will feature vocal quintets, piano, soprano and alto solos. Their instrumental selections will include the vibra harp, violin, Hawaiian guitar, saxophone and accordions.

The Eppley sisters are heralded as the musical evangelists.

SENATORS AND TIGERS DICKER

By JUDSON BAILEY

Orlando, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Trade winds fanned hot and cold around the camp of the Washington Senators today with the Detroit Tigers still hoping to promote a deal that would get some of their problem children off their hands.

President Clark Griffith of the Senators said emphatically that he would not agree to give up his promising young first baseman, Jim (Mickey) Vernon, and veteran pitcher Emil (Dutch) Leonard for Detroit's Louis (Buck) Newsom and Rudy York. It was announced here last night that Leonard had ended his holdout by signing a 1942 Senator contract.

But the "Old Fox" never has been hesitant about changing his mind and a little shuffling of some other aspects of the deal, like throwing in an extra player or a considerable cash consideration, might easily sway the transaction.

Look To Yanks

There also was talk today that the Senators might have something in common with the Yankees, who would find either Vernon or Leonard useful, and besides they have become impatient with their holdout third baseman, Red Rolfe.

Washington would like to have Rolfe and also definitely is interested in Mike Chartak, the rookie outfielder of the Yanks.

Griffith and Manager Bucky Harris say they won't give up Vernon, who batted .299 last year.

He has come along fast and the Senators believe he has a lustrous career ahead of him. But the Washington bosses are resigned to having a second division, probably a cellar ball club and might be persuaded to part with Vernon in spite of their protests.

General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers conferred with Griffith here yesterday and there were indications that they would continue their negotiations.

FIGHT NOW FOR LIFE OF FUTURE

Atlanta, March 10 (AP)—"We fight today not for the easy comfort of yesterday, but for the mastery of tomorrow."

In those blunt words Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, summed up the impact of the war in an address prepared for the opening meeting of the southeastern surgical congress here Monday.

"This is no war for advantage," he declared. "This is a battle for the world. Not who shall rule, but how. The free way of life for you and your children and your children's children is the stake of victory."

There is no intention of draining local communities of essential physicians who will be needed to care for the sick and to supervise health facilities, McNutt declared.

The big problem today is to provide housing, sanitation, transportation and schools in small cities which may jump from 900 population to 9,000 or more within a single month, McNutt declared, and at the same time to keep control of disease outbreaks, including the venereal diseases which formerly have accompanied almost every massing of troops and defense workers. He indicated that this problem was already well under control.

McNutt added that the federal bureau of investigation is ready to step into any town or city to eliminate prostitution if local authorities do not handle the problem properly.

Red Lily Again

Boston, March 10 (AP)—"Get the ladders, boys—It's Red Lily again." That was the cry at the Animal Rescue league office yesterday afternoon.

Red Lily, a cat with a ven for high places was marooned on a south end roof. The agents got her down safely—for the 10th time in the last five years.

FOUR-YEAR OLDS SET PACE FOR RACING HORSES

By SID FEDER

New York, March 10 (AP)—It is a pleasure to report that horse-racing's Rip Van Winkle—the handicap division—is about to roll over and come to life after its two-year nap, and may even stop resembling a slightly used merry-go-round before the year is out.

Dating back to about the time Seabiscuit decided to call it a career and go back to the farm, this section of the American turf has been a has-been.

But what with one thing and another, like the arrival of a pretty fair set of brand new four-year-olds headed by Whirlaway and Market Wised, the upstart Rhymer penned in the Widener last Saturday and the comeback of Challedon, the handicap set has received a shot in the arm.

The returns from such out-of-the-way winter holiday precincts as that in which Whirlaway is romping aren't in yet, but on the basis of those already counted, there'll be pretty close to two-dozen four-year olds and up on hand during the year, any one of whom might ring the bell.

Certainly, the "name" horses in last week's Widener—Market Wised, Midland, Challedon, Attention, Dit, Our Boots and Pictor—can't be as bad as they looked when Eddie Arcaro wrote that poem with the Rhymer last Saturday. And Best Seller and Olympus weren't exactly falling asleep chasing Mrs. Payne Whitney's Stretch Flier home.

These along with such others as War Relic, Hallal and Royal Man—none of whom has been assured of having only three legs—makes up into quite a delegation to head north with the birds, come warm weather and they'll be running into the winter playboys, like Whirly and Staretor, the four-year-olds; Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons' veteran Fenelon, Big Pebble and Shot Put, who is horse-racing's answer to perpetual motion.

Training Camp Briefs

(By The Associated Press)

San Bernardino, Calif.—The possibility that Lee Handley's Major league baseball career may be over is a break for Pittsburgh Rookie Eddie Lelp, second baseman last year with Albany.

Lelp was slated for return to the minors until it developed that Handley was unable to throw a ball across the diamond last winter. He has been sent to Los Angeles for an examination.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—The New York Yankees broke a tradition of 20 years standing in meeting a member of the American league in a spring exhibition contest yesterday. Now they wish they hadn't. Washington won, 9 to 2.

Anaheim, Calif.—Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox says he'd like to get holdout Bob Johnson from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for either Don Kolloway or Bill Knickerbocker. Connie Mack says he needs infield strength but also needs Johnson's hitting power.

Miami Beach, Fla.—Al Giosop, hard hitting second baseman from Kansas City, has been outstanding in the Phil batting and fielding drills, but manager Hans Lobert says the job at the Keystone bag still is open with Danny Murtaugh in the picture because of his speed.

Perkins was about 30. He died a few minutes after being admitted to a hospital.

HARNESS RACES GET APPROVAL

Aiken, S. C., March 10 (AP)—Executive Vice President Roger Duncan of the United States Trotting Association says that Agriculture Secretary Claude Wickard had approved fairs and harness racing for 1942 despite the war and its effects.

Duncan released the information at a meeting of USTA directors, who also were told that the organization operated at a profit in 1941 after several years of deficits.

The finance committee, headed by E. Roland Harriman of New York, reported the 1942 income was expected to total $88,000, of which $33,000 would go to the payroll.

Dunbar W. Bostwick of Shelburn, Vermont, treasurer, said the 1941 profit was $9,000.68, compared with a loss of $18,000 in 1939 and $10,000 in 1940.

All officers were reelected and Louisville, Kentucky, was selected for the 1943 meeting, to be held March 8.

The officers are: E. Roland Harriman, honorary president; G. W. Pittenhour, Piquette, Ohio, president; Roger Duncan, Hartford, Connecticut, executive vice president; H. B. Ellis, Langhorne, Pa., vice president; Andy Adams, Litchfield, Michigan, vice president; Henry Knauf, Ladd, Illinois, assistant executive secretary; Frank Wiswall, Albany, North Carolina, secretary; Will Gahagan, Goshen, New York, and Mrs. Don A. Detrick, Bellefontaine, Ohio, executive secretaries and Bostwick, treasurer.

"Teach Yanks To Kick, Gouge And Knee,"—Dempsey

Philadelphia, March 10 (AP)—Jack Dempsey says America's fighting men ought to be trained to "kick, gouge and knee" their Axis enemies.

"There are no rules in this war," said the former heavyweight champion, here to referee a wrestling match, "and there'll be plenty of hand-to-hand fighting before it's over."

He recommended boxing, wrestling and fencing "as conditioners."

"Boxing and fencing are similar to bayonet fighting in footwork," he explained. "and wrestling teaches a man how to take care of himself in hand-to-hand battle."

Since its discovery, rubber has gone through this transition of names: koochook, caoutchouc, lead-eater, Indian rubber, india-rubber.

To Present Spiritual Program

The five Eppley sisters, graduates of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., will present a spiritual program at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Bendersville, Sunday evening, March 22 at 7:45 o'clock.

The vocal talent of the five sisters is widely known in church circles. They have appeared a number of times on special programs in this vicinity. They will feature vocal quartets, piano, soprano and alto solos. Their instrumental selections will include the vibra harp, violin, Hawaiian guitar, saxophone and accordions.

The Eppley sisters are heralded as the musical evangelists.

SENATORS AND TIGERS DICKER

By JUDSON BAILEY

Orlando, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Trade winds fanned hot and cold around the camp of the Washington Senators today with the Detroit Tigers still hoping to promote a deal that would get some of their problem children off their hands.

President Clark Griffith of the Senators said emphatically that he would not agree to give up his promising young first baseman, Jim (Mickey) Vernon, and veteran pitcher Emil (Dutch) Leonard for Detroit's Louis (Buck) Newsom and Rudy York. It was announced here last night that Leonard had ended his holdout by signing a 1942 Senator contract.

But the "Old Fox" never has been hesitant about changing his mind and a little shuffling of some other aspects of the deal, like throwing in an extra player or a considerable cash consideration, might easily sway the transaction.

Look To Yanks

There also was talk today that the Senators might have something in common with the Yankees, who would find either Vernon or Leonard useful, and besides they have become impatient with their holdout third baseman, Red Rolfe.

Washington would like to have Rolfe and also definitely is interested in Mike Chartak, the rookie outfielder of the Yanks.

Griffith and Manager Bucky Harris say they won't give up Vernon, who batted .299 last year.

He has come along fast and the Senators believe he has a lustrous career ahead of him. But the Washington bosses are resigned to having a second division, probably a cellar ball club and might be persuaded to part with Vernon in spite of their protests.

General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers conferred with Griffith here yesterday and there were indications that they would continue their negotiations.

FIGHT NOW FOR LIFE OF FUTURE

Atlanta, March 10 (AP)—"We fight today not for the easy comfort of yesterday, but for the mastery of tomorrow."

In those blunt words Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, summed up the impact of the war in an address prepared for the opening meeting of the southeastern surgical congress here Monday.

"This is no war for advantage," he declared. "This is a battle for the world. Not who shall rule, but how. The free way of life for you and your children and your children's children is the stake of victory."

There is no intention of draining local communities of essential physicians who will be needed to care for the sick and to supervise health facilities, McNutt declared.

The big problem today is to provide housing, sanitation, transportation and schools in small cities which may jump from 900 population to 9,000 or more within a single month, McNutt declared, and at the same time to keep control of disease outbreaks, including the venereal diseases which formerly have accompanied almost every massing of troops and defense workers. He indicated that this problem was already well under control.

McNutt added that the federal bureau of investigation is ready to step into any town or city to eliminate prostitution if local authorities do not handle the problem properly.

Red Lily Again

Boston, March 10 (AP)—"Get the ladders, boys—it's Red Lily again." That was the cry at the Animal Rescue league office yesterday afternoon.

Red Lily, a cat with a yen for high places, was marooned on a south end roof. The agents got her down safely—for the 10th time in the last five years.

FOUR-YEAR OLDS SET PACE FOR RACING HORSES

By SID FEDER

New York, March 10 (AP)—It is a pleasure to report that horse-racing's Rip Van Winkle—the handicap division—is about to roll over and come to life after its two-year nap, and may even stop resembling a slightly upset merry-go-round before the year is out.

Dating back to about the time Seabiscuit decided to call it a career and go back to the farm, this section of the American turf has been a has-been.

But what with one thing and another, like the arrival of a pretty fair set of brand new four-year-olds headed by Whirlaway and Market Wise, the upset the Rymer penned in the Widener last Saturday and the comeback of Challeon, the handicap set has received a shot in the arm.

The returns from such out-of-the-way winter holiday precincts as that in which Whirlaway is romping aren't in yet, but on the basis of those already counted, there'll be pretty close to two-dozen four-year-olds and up on hand during the year, any one of whom might ring the bell.

Certainly, the "name" horses in last week's Widener—Market Wise, Mieland, Challeon, Attention, Dit, Our Boots and Pictor—can't be as bad as they looked when Eddie Arcaro wrote that poem with the Rymer last Saturday. And Best Seller and Olympus weren't exactly falling asleep chasing Mrs. Payne Whitney's Stretch Flier home.

These along with such others as War Relic, Haltal and Royal Man—none of whom has been assured of having only three legs—makes up into quite a delegation to head north with the birds, come warm weather and they'll be running into the winter playboys, like Whirly and Stare-to, the four-year-olds; Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons' veteran Penelon, Big Pebble and Shot Put, who is horse-racing's answer to perpetual motion.

HARNESS RACES GET APPROVAL

Aiken, S. C., March 10 (AP)—Executive Vice President Roger Duncan of the United States Trotting Association says that Agriculture Secretary Claude Wickard had approved fairs and harness racing for 1942 despite the war and its effects.

Duncan released the information at a meeting of USTA directors, who also were told that the organization operated at a profit in 1941 after several years of deficits.

The finance committee, headed by E. Roland Harriman of New York, reported the 1942 income was expected to total $88,000, of which $33,000 would go to the payroll.

Dunbar W. Bostwick of Shelburn, Vermont, treasurer, said the 1941 profit was $9,060.68, compared with a loss of $18,000 in 1939 and $10,000 in 1940.

All officers were reelected and Louisville, Kentucky, was selected for the 1943 meeting, to be held March 8.

The officers are: E. Roland Harriman, honorary president; G. W. Pittenhour, Piquette, Ohio, president; Roger Duncan, Hartford, Connecticut, executive vice president; H. B. Ellis, Langhorne, Pa., vice president; Andy Adams, Litchfield, Michigan, vice president; Henry Knauf, Ladd, Illinois, assistant executive secretary; Frank Wiswall, Albany, North Carolina, secretary; Will Gahagan, Goshen, New York, and Mrs. Don A. Detrick, Bellefontaine, Ohio, executive secretaries and Bostwick, treasurer.

"Teach Yanks To Kick, Gouge And Knee,"—Dempsey

Philadelphia, March 10 (AP)—Jack Dempsey says America's fighting men ought to be trained to "kick, gouge and knee" their Axis enemies.

"There are no rules in this war," said the former heavyweight champion, here to referee a wrestling match, "and there'll be plenty of hand-to-hand fighting before it's over."

He recommended boxing, wrestling and fencing "as conditioners."

"Boxing and fencing are similar to bayonet fighting in footwork," he explained, "and wrestling teaches a man how to take care of himself in hand-to-hand battle."

Since its discovery, rubber has gone through this transition of names: koochook, caoutchouc, lead-eater, Indian rubber, india-rubber.
